Please note: This point balance is as of 6.30.18. This statement indicates the months in which points were posted to your account, based on your Verizon billing dates for services. Points earned from regular telephone service and Long Distance are generally posted to your account one month after your billing date. Visit SmallBizRewards.verizon.com for a more up to date statement including a complete list of enrolled numbers. Points earned from High Speed Internet services may take up to one month to be posted to your account. Points earned by responding to offers may not appear on your statement until the following quarter or later.
